

The Civil Parish of Burwash

It is said that 500 villagers from Burwash (population 2,500 – 3,000) served in the Great War 1914 – 1919

We know that this included the following 488, of whom 135 died

Sources:

- A bound collection of 1918 Parish magazines given to the Rector in 2003 by Mr F Morris.
- Memorials and graves within the Civil Parish and the Burwash Roll of Honour.
- The Commonwealth War Graves Commission registers.
- 'Soldiers who died in the Great War' for those men who had put 'Burwash' as their place of birth or residence on their enlistment form.

'pow' denotes prisoner of war.

'c' denotes- connected with Burwash by their entries on Army enlistment forms or through the Commonwealth War Graves Commission registers etc.
